◆ ABOUT ME :

I'm a customer-focused professional with extensive experience in customer service and remote virtual assistance, helping businesses deliver seamless customer experiences and build lasting relationships. With a background in e-commerce support, order management, customer retention, and after-sales service, I turn customer concerns into opportunities to build trust and loyalty.

From resolving payment and shipping issues to managing refunds, disputes, and customer inquiries across phone, email, and chat, I bring a proactive approach, strong problem-solving skills, and attention to detail to every task. I'm also experienced in CRM and communication tools, including Zendesk, Freshdesk, Sticky.io, Konnektive CRM, Five9, and Dialpad.

My goal is simple: to make every customer interaction count while helping businesses run smoothly, retain customers, and grow with confidence.
